

JOB POSTING

Position: Field Engineer-Kabul Hub Manager

Location: Country wide through Afghanistan

Length of Assignment : Min one up to two years

Summary: The Field Engineer will

- Provide installation, configuration and operational support of an iDirect 5IF Hub and 4.9M VSAT system to support up to 64 remote sites in Kabul, Afghanistan.
- Provide installation, configuration and on-site corrective and preventative maintenance of up to 64 (1.8M – 2.4M VSATS) iDirect sites in Afghanistan.
- Provide 1st – 3rd level troubleshooting while working with our US based Network Operations Center and Engineering staff to ensure timely resolution of iDirect network and satellite issues.
- Provide analysis and recommendations pertaining to optimization and enhancements in order to improve performance, increase efficiency, and reduce costs.

Minimum Requirements:

- Military or technical training in associated discipline or equivalent 7-10 years experience.
- Secret clearance with ability to obtain and maintain an interim and final Top Secret Security clearance.
- Experience with iDirect 5IF hub and infinity series remote routers.
- Demonstrated technical knowledge of transmission, broadcasting, switching, control & operation of telecommunication systems
- Demonstrate ability to quickly assimilate technical data, methods and procedures.
- Perform effectively in an unstructured environment with high level of independent thinking throughout the planning, scheduling and facilitating of projects start to finish.
- Capable of lifting up to 80lbs and work at a height above 20ft.

- Strong organizational skills to prioritize tasks under time constraints.
- Demonstrated basic fundamental TCP/IP networking experience.
- Communicate effectively, open to thinking out of the box, while possessing strong organizing, planning and interpersonal skills.

Optional/Preferred Skills:

- iDirect Advanced IOM Certification
- Cisco CCNA
- Bachelors Degree in a related field

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER